"The Great Escape"

Fire Department Plans for SAFE Program

The Mattapoisett Fire Department's Student Awareness Fire Education (SAFE) Program is participating in the first-ever North American Fire Drill. Fire Departments from all across the United States are being asked to take part in "The Great Escape," which will be held on Wednesday, October 7 at 6:00 pm at the Mattapoisett Fire Station. The event will be immediately followed by an Open House of the facility.

After the recent horrible fire in nearby New Bedford took the lives of an entire family, it seems more important than ever that every child in town know a safe way out of their house and how to find a mutual meeting place. The Mattapoisett Fire Department would like to give each and every child that participates in "The Great Escape" a special tee-shirt which designates them as a winner in Fire Safety.

The department will need 1,000 shirts — and Neil Anderson at Screen Works is willing to make these shirts for cost. Even with this generous offer, however, it will still cost about $2,650, and the Fire Department is looking for donations (in any amount) from residents. Even with all the advances in technology and equipment which is used to fight fires, education is and always will be one of the most powerful weapons. "The Great Escape" is one of the best ways to teach kids about fire safety in the home.

If you have any questions regarding "The Great Escape" or the forthcoming Open House, please contact Flo Dubois at the Mattapoisett Fire Department between 8:00 and 11:00 am at 758-4150.

Rochester Library Prepares for Busy Season

If you haven't stopped by the Plumb Memorial Library in Rochester of late — or ever — now is the perfect time to acquaint yourself with all they have to offer. September is Card Sign-Up Month at the library, and all residents (children must be at least five years old) are entitled to a library card at their town library. A library card gives patrons access to the collections of over 20 libraries including public, school, and university libraries. With your library card you can check out books, videos, books on tape, magazines, and computer software. If you've never visited the Plumb Library, why not drop by in September and sign up for a card? Registration forms are available at the library, at the Rochester Town Hall, or at the Plumb Corner Market. Forms were also sent home with all students at Rochester's Memorial School. So if you've never visited, the library staff looks forward to seeing you this month.

They've also got a slate of upcoming events planned, including:

• Preschool Story Hour

The Plumb Memorial Library will offer a Preschool Story Hour which is open to children ages 3 to 6. It will be held on Tuesday morning from 10:15 to 11:00 am. Children and their parents will enjoy stories, crafts and other activities. Registration is required. The fall series will run from October 6 through November 24. Registration is required by calling 763-8600 or stopping by the library.

• Toddler Playgroup

The Toddler Playgroup is open to babies and children ages 1 to 2. It will be held on Wednesday morning from 10:15 to 11:00 am. Children and their parents can enjoy unstructured play time, with a variety of activities to choose from. The play group gives very young children the chance to interact and play together, and gives their parents the opportunity to get to know one another. The fall series will run from October 7 through November 25. Registration is required by calling 763-8600 or stopping by the library.

• Banned Books Week

Banned Books Week will be held from September 26 to October 3 this year. During the month of September, the Plumb Memorial Library will be exhibiting books that have been banned or challenged across the country and around the world. The American Library Association's

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

September 8, 1998

By Rebecca Fortin

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, September 8 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Albert E. Winters. Also present were Selectman Loretta B. Schaefer, Selectman Jonathan "Jody" Dickerson, Secretary Helene Craver, and Executive Secretary Ray Pickles.

The evening began with an appointment with Police Chief Brian J. Scott who was present to re-introduce Marshall Sadick, a candidate for a patrolman's position on the Police Department. Mr. Sadick had actually worked

Mr. Sadick, who explained to the board that he never lost interest in the position, showed enthusiasm at the prospect of returning to the job. Chief Scott added that he was "looking forward" to having him on board, and Selectman Dickerson added that he had worked with Mr. Sadick previously and found him to be a tremendous asset.

His appointment to the Police Department was unanimously approved, which will be effective September 20, 1998 and expire on May 31, 1999. He was also approved to receive the top pay scale for the position.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

September 8, 1998

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, September 8 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Richard D. Cutler. Also present were Selectman Naida L. Parker, Selectman Pat Ryan, Interim Executive Secretary James Huntoon, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere.

After unanimously approving the minutes of the August 31 meeting, the board discussed the scheduling of the Special Town Election after the already-planned November 16 Special Town Meeting. Mr. Huntoon noted that the ballot had to be prepared and posted at least 35 days prior to the election. Since the board was wary of scheduling the election too close to the holidays or the state election, they agreed to hold it on December 2, and asked Mr. Huntoon to prepare the ballot within the next

The board next signed and approved payment of an invoice for Kopelman and Paige for legal services rendered in the amount of $912.53. Chairman Cutler also wished to remind all town committees and boards that requests for legal services should be made through them. "I'd like to reestablish with (boards) that they should be checking with the Board of Selectmen before running up bills with Town Counsel," he said. "As a courtesy, all town boards should consult with us before seeking a legal opinion."

The board received another formal complaint from Holly J. Vogel of Hiller Road against the nine "hunting dogs" owned by Harold "Buzz" Mendoza. Ms. Vogel cited "excessive barking" as the reason for her complaint.

Mr. Huntoon offered that he had been in contact with Public Prosecutor Harry Schmidt, and the previous appeal filed by the Mendozas with the Clerk Magistrate had been dismissed.

Selectman Ryan said she would like to schedule a hearing on this matter and follow everything according to the letter of the law. "We should have one hearing where we come up with a finding," she said. "We should have the constables or police serve notice ... and I would like all this done under oath. That's the way I want it handled ... we do it once."

The board agreed to schedule a Dog Hearing on this most recent complaint on October 5 at 7:30 pm. All parties will be notified at least 14 days prior to the hearing.

Mary Beth Carlson next came before the board to discuss her request last week to have a four-way stop sign installed at the intersection of Mary's Pond Road and Dexter's Lane. According to Ms. Carlson, the intersection is very dangerous and prone to accidents. "I live right at the intersection ... and I'm just waiting to hear another bang," she said. "Cars and trucks just speed through the intersection without even stopping ... they're just low-gearing it."

Chairman Cutler agreed that they should have both Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge and Police Chief Walter Denham come in to discuss this matter further.

On a similar note, Chairman Cutler noted that they received an unsigned letter, which they will not address. "The Board of Selectmen does not accept letters which are unsigned or signed anonymously," he said. "We certainly encourage letters from residents, but we don't accept unsigned letters."

At 7:55 pm the board met with Town Accountant Claudette Coutu and Town Treasurer John Hall to discuss the upcoming audit for fiscal year 1998. Mr. Hall noted that it seemed like things were lingering, and they should be well on their way to working on the audit. "We're usually two-thirds done by November, and we haven't even started yet," Mr. Hall said. "I'm getting letters requesting audit information ... I just wanted to make sure it was on schedule."

Chairman Cutler said there wasn't a delay, they had simply requested a proposal from another auditing firm which took some time to come in. As such, they have two proposals in hand — one from Rodrigues, Guckin and Tobojka of New Bedford for $5,900, and the other from Burke and Lamb of Westport for $7,500.

Ms. Coutu said she had some concerns about continuing with the present firm of Rodrigues, Guckin and Tobojka, since there were some things that were overlooked in last year's audit. But she was sensitive to the price difference, as well.

"I have mixed feelings, too, because I remember discussing the problems with the mistakes that were

Chairman Cutler felt that since there was no formal bid solicitation this time around, they should continue with the same firm and actively solicit bids from other firms next year. With that, the board unanimously agreed to engage the firm of Rodrigues, Guckin and Tobojka for the fiscal year 1998 audit at $5,900.

In other matters, the board received:

• Letter of appreciation from John and Maureen Motley of Bates Road, thanking Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge and his department for rebuilding the bridge on their street. "Within a short time, Mr. Eldridge came up with a completely satisfactory solution which combined the required safety with a most attractive design which fits right into its surroundings," the letter stated. "We would like to go on record with a vote of thanks for Mr. Eldridge for not only taking the time and creative thought

Ms. Hawkes cited her six years of experience on the Board of Selectmen and other stints with the Planning Board and Conservation Commission as viable credentials for the FinCom. She added that the State Ethics Commission agreed there was no conflict of interest in having spouses serve on the same board (as her husband is currently on the FinCom).

However, Chairman Cutler said there is a statute in place which precludes her from being appointed by the board on which she formerly served for anywhere from six months to two years. He asked that this so-called "cooling period" be researched and that Ms. Hawkes' letter be placed on file pending that information.

ON RECEIVING AN OFFER

Once you put your house up for sale, you have to promise yourself that you won't waiver when the right offer comes. If it's a fair one -- jump on it! The offering price should come pretty close to the asking price if you've priced your property realistically. The right offer may be your first offer, and if you turn it down, you may never get another as good.

However, the offer should be a written one -- the kind that has any real significance and on which you can depend.

Just remember that a legitimate offer should be accompanied by a good-size check depending on the selling price. Never accept a verbal promise and take your property off the market. The next day, a good sale may be lost if you are tied up in this type of questionable transaction. You'll never have to worry about this situation arising if the sale of your property is in the hands of our agency.

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

FLEA PRODUCT UPDATE

Could you update me on the flea products that are available for dogs and cats?

There are two relatively new flea treatments which have revolutionized flea control. Advantage and Frontline. Both of these products are dispensed as drops that are applied to the skin once a month. Frontline is also effective as a tick preventative. In addition, Frontline is less affected by swimming and bathing than Advantage.

Program is a tablet that prevents reproduction of any fleas that your pet acquires.

If my pets have infested our home with fleas, do I need to spray to kill the fleas?

In the past, you would have had to spray your home with insecticides or hire an exterminator. By using Frontline or Advantage on all of the dogs and cats in the house, the fleas will die when they jump on the animal.

Long Plain Friends Meetinghouse

The Long Plain Friends Meetinghouse and its Quaker Museum will be open for the final day of the 1998 summer season on Sunday, September 13 from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm.

The ancient Meetinghouse, the only Acushnet building on the National Register of Historic Places, was built in 1759 in what was then the British colony of Massachusetts. Its graveyard is even older — it houses pews from three different centuries, ancient books, and artifacts and a history that covers the farming community, the whaling masters' community, and the disappearance of the Acushnet Quaker community. Admission is FREE, and the Meetinghouse is located at 1341 Main Street in Acushnet.

This past spring, the Sippican Choral Society sang with the New Bedford Choral Society and the Concord Chorus in stunning performances of Ralph Vaughan Williams' Sea Symphony and Andrew Jackson McWain's Symphony of Just Words at the dedication ceremonies of the new National Historic Whaling Park in New Bedford. The chorus also sponsors Summer Sings! in which the general public can sing with the chorus.

New Hours

The Mattapoisett Public Library is now open on Saturday until 3:00 pm.

In the Fall, more evening hours will be added during the week, according to the newly-elected Chairman of the Library Trustees, Bette Roberts. The extra hours are in response to the results of a survey of library patrons earlier this year.

Ms. Roberts said the new hours are possible because two staff positions unfilled for about 10 months have been filled. Barbara Perrault has begun as a Technical Services staffer and Melissa Correira as Library Technician.

Other trustees elected to new positions this week were: Joan Andersen (clerk); Bob Walter (treasurer); Bob Atkinson (building and grounds); and Betty Theriault and Bob Walter (computer committee).

Movie Review

Friendly Fire

BY ROB GONSALVES
local@wanderer.com

■ Your Friends & Neighbors*. Starring Ben Stiller, Catherine Keener, Aaron Eckhart, Amy Brenneman, Jason Patric, and Nastassja Kinski. Directed by Neil LaBute. Running time: 99 minutes. MPAA rating: R. At select theaters.

The characters in Neil LaBute's universe aren't quite like us — they're abstract — yet in some ways they're more like us than we like to admit. LaBute doesn't stylize his characters so much that we can stand at a comfortable distance from them, and that bothered a lot of people who saw his debut, In the Company of Men. Those people called LaBute's vision cold and hollow, as if they experienced his work as a personal slap at them. That says more about the critic than about the work.

LaBute's second film, Your Friends & Neighbors, won't win him any converts (the way Tarantino's Pulp Fiction won over those who hated Reservoir Dogs), but for those who appreciated Company, it's a keeper. As always, LaBute points his microscope at a microcosm of sexual politics, except here he has twice the number of people — three men, three women — and many more opportunities for those painfully funny (or just painful) LaBute moments in which characters are explicitly candid without really saying anything. And in LaBute's world it hardly matters if nobody really says anything, because nobody really listens, either.

In an unnamed Anycity (the film has no exterior shots), two couples — the married Barry and Mary (Aaron Eckhart and Amy Brenneman), the cohabitating Jerry and Terri (Ben Stiller and Catherine Keener) — fumble in their respective beds. The women grit their teeth and endure the strained lovemaking of their insecure men, who see sex as a way of measuring up. "Is it me?" the men keep asking. "Yes, it's you" seems the proper answer, though LaBute only has one woman say that in a nonsexual context. Rounding out this sextet (or bad-sextet) are Cheri (Natassja Kinski), a friendly lesbian, and Cary (Jason Patric), an unfriendly womanizer.

LaBute doesn't tell stories, exactly; he sets up his people and lets them knock each other down, and Your Friends & Neighbors has a looser structure than the rigorous In the Company of Men, which marched to its grim conclusion like a man to the gallows. Those who hissed Aaron Eckhart's Chad in Company will be amused to see him here, pudgy and with an ugly mustache, playing someone closer to Chad's foil Howard. Any film in which Eckhart plays the most sympathetic character is full of surprises, not the least of which is Jason Patric, shaking himself awake to give a rancid, scowling performance — a mesmerizing portrait of misogyny that makes Chad look like Alan Alda. The actors are fine across the board, but the stand-out is Catherine Keener, whose Terri is snappish and blunt but also the movie's voice of reason, forever pleading for silence — an end to the constant banal babble.

LaBute likes symbolic names. In Company he had Chad the cad, Howard the coward, and Christine the pristine; here everyone has rhyming names. These people have nothing in common, and no poetry in their lives, besides their names. Yet they sleep with each other, or hang out together, out of convenience. LaBute doesn't tell us how any of them met; they stand for the busy drones in any city who latch onto people just to be "social." The Ben Stiller character, a drama professor, keeps talking about "fate"; that's what people say to justify bad relationships. We're just hollow bodies, LaBute is saying, going through the motions of love and friendship to avoid being alone — which produces a more piercing loneliness: the awareness that your friends and neighbors, and even lovers, don't really know you and never really will.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Weekly Tip: The sun's in Virgo all week long, helping us all stay organized.

Aries (March 21-April 19). Work as if your life depended on it and you might push up to the next level.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Finish up old projects and start new ones. You're on a roll. Just about everything you touch will turn to gold.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Learn how to provide what you need for your home. It'll be relatively easy and just about the only way you'll get what you really want.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). A partner has interesting things to tell you. You can learn a lot if you listen and take notes.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). There's no time for anything but work. The good news is that money is pouring into your coffers. A partner wants attention.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Your luck in love is excellent. You might even be inspired to make a forever commitment or up the ante on the one you've got.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Get your friends to help with a household project. Conditions are great for taking things apart and putting them back together again.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You're sharp as a tack. Learn by working with a person who knows what he or she is doing. If you pay close attention, you can use the skills on your own.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Money is your major focus, where to get it and how to spend it. Use your brains plus something you have at home to make a trade.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Finish old business first, then set your new plans into action. You're awesome. You have the luck, the wits and the experience to make something fabulous happen.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb 18). The pressure increases. Get used to it. It'll get you into good shape for when you should push hard to get what you want.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). Your friends are really there for you. Their advice can teach you how to achieve a mutual goal.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: Love's on your agenda this year. By now you should have a clue as to who.

ADOPTABLE ANIMALS — Animal Umbrella bears good news from the Halfway Home once again. "Bud" and "Helen," our two kittens which were abandoned at the Mobil station in Mattapoisett, have been adopted together into a loving home in Fairhaven. We are, however, still searching for their mom who is a petite buff and white friendly female. She is most likely still in that vicinity so if seen please call Animal Umbrella immediately. "Missy," our sleek black six-month-old double-pawed was also adopted along with several kittens during this past week. This week's featured adult cat is a year-old neutered male named "Skipper." He is a beautiful friendly buff-colored with copper eyes. Skipper would prefer to be only in an indoor/outdoor situation. He is presently residing in a foster home with Terri at 990-1413. Terri also is foster caring "Kalla," the two-year-old calico featured last week who is still available. New to our adult list is a four- to five-year-old dark orange neutered male with double paws who was abandoned by his owner. "Red" is a wonderful cat but extremely sad and bewildered. He would also like to be able to go outside. He is presently at the cattery in a cage which is much too confining for him. In the kitten category this week, we are doing the pairs routine again. We have several litter mates who are hoping to stay together. Remember the Doublemint slogan — two are always more fun than one. If the kitten is going to be alone all day while you are at work it is so much better to have a friend to be with — it makes them less aggressive and less destructive. One pair is a set of sable brown females who are very different, extremely lovable, and just inseparable. One is angora, the other has very dense thick fur. They are presently in a Fairhaven foster home. The other pair is two all-black short-haired males and females about ten weeks old. They love each other and everyone they meet. We have lots more kittens including calicos, tigers, all white, orange and black and whites. Our next Adoption Day will be held at the National Pet Store in the Ann & Hope plaza in Dartmouth with the Fairhaven Animal Shelter on Saturday, September 12 from 12:00 to 3:00 with lots of cats, kittens and dogs looking for new homes.

COOKIN' GOOD

Skillet Lemon Pepper Chicken
By Deanna Gugel

6 chicken breasts
1 cup uncooked rice
1/2 white onion
1-1/2 cups fresh mushrooms
1/2 bottle honey-mustard dressing
all-purpose seasoning
lemon pepper seasoning

Clean the mushrooms and the chicken breasts. Slice the mushrooms thinly. If you wish, you may remove the skin from the chicken. Sprinkle the chicken generously with the all-purpose seasoning and lemon pepper on one side. Flip and repeat. Set each chicken breast in a large skillet in such a way that they will cook evenly and turn up your range to high. If you have removed the chicken skin, add 2 T vegetable oil. Once the chicken breasts have started to fry and are browned on both sides, reduce the heat to medium or medium-low, depending upon how hot your range gets. Then pour in the honey-mustard dressing and add the mushroom slices and slices of onion. Cook for no more than 30 minutes, or until the chicken breasts are no longer pink near the bone. Baste the chicken breasts occasionally to keep them from drying out and add some more dressing during the last five minutes of cooking. You'll use about half a bottle of dressing. This should create a glaze on the chicken. While the chicken breasts are cooking, prepare your favorite rice according to package directions. When both are ready, remove from the range top. Spoon two tablespoons of the rice onto a dish and set a chicken breast on top. Then spoon some of the heated honey-mustard dressing over the top and serve while hot.
